NOTE.

Dated 28th December 1927

When I visited Harihar on the 25th instant I found that the Taluk authorities had completely closed the Chattram for travellers, who were compelled to use only the verandah of the building. The Deputy Amildar said that this was done under Government Orders closing the Anna Chattram. There was never any idea of refusing lodging to travellers in these Chattrams. Only feeding was to be stopped. It is a pity that the local authorities should not have exercised their discretion and should have put poor travellers to so much inconvenience. Another Government Order may, if necessary, be issued making the intention of the Government clear. I have directed that the Chattram should be thrown open freely to all travellers and that they should also be permitted the use of the kitchen attached to it

Both the Chattram and the kitchens are in a very dirty condition and in need of repairs. These should be got attended to at once. It should be possible to find some money for this from the Muzrai funds.
